

The Mighty Mouse

The Danish/Norwegian piano trio The Mighty Mouse has constituted the backbone of several musical settings for years, and the musicians have toured all over Europe with artists such as Peter Brötzmann, Henrik Walsdorf, Johannes Bauer, Axel Dörner, Rudi Mahall, Phil Minton and Peter Friis-Nielsen. Finally, in 2007 the trio settled to explore their own repertoire of original compositions based on a highly developed interplay that is not afraid of taking the trio format to the extreme. This has resulted in a wide range of successful tours in Europe during the last 5 years - especially in Germany, where the trio has played over 60 concerts. The character of the music is transparent and builds on melodic and rhythmical sketches as a basis for open improvisation. The great freedom and the responsibility that follows with this form of music is evident for the musicians as well as the audience and results in an honest art form that does not seduce the listener with cheap tricks, but focuses on the immediate process of creation and an ultra-tight interplay.

The Mighty Mouse consists of :

Morten Pedersen (DK) - piano
Adam Pultz Melbye (DK) - double bass
Håkon Berre (NO) - drums

The trio released their second album "Live at Glenn Miller Café" (on double vinyl & CD) in May 2012 on Barefoot Records. The trio's debut CD "The Mighty Mouse" hit the stores back in 2007, and both releases have received astonishing reviews in both the Danish and the international press:

"...done with such powerful aplomb that even the audience members who usually talk throughout the bass introductions are quiet by the finale(s)."

- Ken Waxman, Jazzword.com (CA)

"The musicians excellent interplay is perfected after many years of interaction. It gives them the freedom to take the music out to extreme forms, which in return ensures the music its edge." - Jouko Kirstilä, Jazzrytmit (FI)

"Like a bicycle crash, without a bicycle." - Niels Overgaard, JazzNyt.blogspot.dk (DK)
